We are thrilled to extend our unwavering support to SUGAREX 2023 on behalf of the Indonesian Sugar Research Institute (P3GI). As a committed member of the sugar industry, P3GI recognizes the significance of this event in fostering collaboration, knowledge-sharing, and addressing industry challenges.

P3GI members will actively participate in SUGAREX 2023, engaging with visitors and exhibitors alike to share the latest updates on the Indonesian sugar sector. This two-year hiatus has only strengthened our anticipation for this exceptional networking opportunity.

With great enthusiasm, we invite all sugar industry professionals to join us at SUGAREX 2023. Let's come together to renew old acquaintances, establish new connections, and collectively propel the sugar industry forward.

Wishing the organizers, a resounding success in orchestrating this remarkable event!
